As a mother I want to be humble enough to realize I haven't mastered it all,
brave enough
to keep trying, and thankful enough
to see the grace in it.

A Letter from Rev. Edie

Rev. Edie Lenz
Pastor

Hickory Hills Family –

Many of you know that we have been praying for the Netter family and Molly's nieces and nephew in the deaths of their parents in South Africa. The journey for the children has only just begun. As they are now orphaned, Molly is working to gain custody of the children and bring them here to the U.S. This will be a long journey and will require much preparation and patience. It will also be an expensive journey with lawyer fees, court fees, and a lot of work is needed to make it happen, particularly, in the midst of a pandemic.

I have asked Molly to share her powerful story with you. After you have read her story, I want to share with you how we at HHPC are hoping to assist.

“When my brother told me that his wife had tested positive for COVID-19 a little after Christmas Day, I did not think much about it. I went about living my “busy” life of being a mother-wife-healthcare provider and student. A few days later, my brother called again and told me that he had taken his wife to the hospital.

“She is now in a COVID unit,” he said; my heart sank, but I still did not think much about it. I would ask how she was doing, and my brother would say, “not good, oxygen was 77% last night.” Honestly, I could not imagine anyone sustaining with an oxygen level of 77%. She was in the hospital, getting oxygen therapy and maintaining at 77%. Something was not right with that picture. I chose to believe my lie-- My brother did not know what he was talking about; the number he was telling me about was heart rate, not oxygen saturation.

The moment of my awakening came the morning my brother sent me his wife's voice text. Her voice was breaking. She was asking for her toiletries; she ended with “My oxygen dipped to 44% last night.” She was gasping for breath. I remember raising my voice to my brother as if he could do anything about it. “Benjamin, she cannot sustain at 77%...what are they doing?” “Molly, I do not know.” There was that sadness in his voice.

He later told me that he did not want to talk about his wife's condition anymore because it stressed him out, and he wanted to leave it with God. I told him I was not going to ask anymore. A day after, he called again and left a voice text, “Molly, call me when you get a chance...I am scared. I am aware that nothing is permanent. I trust God, but I cannot deny the fact that I am scared.” Benjamin was my oldest brother; he was scared. His wife was now on an ICU floor, which was just about the last time we heard about her. No phone calls, no updates. My brother sounded ok with “mild symptoms.” We decided he would battle the virus at home early on. When he started having mild symptoms, we thought that was going to be it. He promised me that he was going to beat the virus. My brother was a private person, and for some reason, he had reached out to every family member, letting them know about his wife's illness and his mild symptoms, “pray for us.”

The night of the 17th of January into the 18th, I found myself awake; eyes wide open. My sleep had not been that great, but this particular night, I was wide awake. Around 2:00 a.m., I got a phone call from my brother; he wanted to FaceTime. He had never wanted to FaceTime. Unfortunately, the reception was terrible, and we resorted to a regular phone. He told me that his chest hurt. He had puked the medicine he had taken. His oxygen was at 62%, and his heart rate was at 150. I asked him if he wanted to go to the hospital, he said no. He talked with an oxygen level of 62%, so I told him to sit still. I hung up and said I was going to call back soon. That soon never came. His older son texted and said my brother wanted to go to the hospital. I said, ok. They went and sent him back to wait for his turn for a COVID-19 test. They drove back home, but my brother said he would sit in the car to catch his breath. He never got out of that car. I received a phone call that he was not breathing. It took about an hour for an ambulance to come; he had been gone for a while. They left him there, and the funeral home came almost 3 hours later. His 14-year-old son witnessed all this. The girls had gone to stay with a family friend.

I later learned that my brother was fumbling the day he died to write a note asking me to please raise his children. He told his son that I was one to make all decisions. "He trusted you and said everything you said would be the right decision."

His wife died on the 21st of January. He and his wife leave three dependent children, their names are Dali (14, boy), Nafe (10, girl) and Yankho (2, girl), they lived in Johannesburg and are right now living with friends of my brother. I have applied for custody of the children, but must wait for the courts to decide. Then we will work to bring them here to the U.S. This is even more difficult now because of COVID. I am told Nafe is getting anxious, she is afraid I will change my mind. I speak with her a lot; Dali does not talk much.

The days that followed their deaths were a daze—making funeral arrangements for two. Pain. Lots of pain. For some reason, whenever I feel like this, memories of my father always surface. On the day I texted Pastor Edie, I felt crushed, and somehow, I drifted back in time. I literally heard my father's voice, "Wherever you go, make sure you surround yourself with people who know Christ; with them, you will always have common ground." I found myself picking up the phone and talking to Pastor Edie. My father has always been right. The outpouring of support from the church; the conversations we have had. I have seen the face of Christ amid this ugliness. "There may be weeping at night, but joy comes in the morning." Thank you for being that "morning." I feel anchored and want to thank you very much for showing our family the face of Christ."

HHPC Family, our world often feels out of control and we often feel we have little ability to impact the needs and lives of others. We DO have the opportunity to make a difference in this circumstance. Session has voted to use the full proceeds from the annual Rummage Sale to benefit the Netter Family and the cost of bringing Dali, Nafe, and Yankho to live with them. In this small way, we can shine the light of Christ a bit brighter.

The Rummage Sale will be held May 20-22. Donations of items are now being accepted. Please continue to pray for the family, for the journey they are on, and the children in particular.

*Peace and love in Christ,
Rev. Edie*

Dali, Nafe and Yankho with their parents.

Worship Services, Readings, Reflections

The following readings and sermons are ones that Rev. Edie will focus on during Sunday in-person worship. You can participate in virtual Sunday worship livestreamed on Facebook Live at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday mornings and then recorded and posted on our website at www.hickoryhillspres.org by noon on Sunday. If you are worshipping from home, and don't have Internet access, you may read and reflect on these scripture passages in your bible.

Date	Readings	Sermon Title
Sunday, May 2	John 15:1-8; 1 John 4:7-21	Discipleship: A Reflective Life
Sunday, May 9	John 15: 9-17; 1 John 5:1-6	Discipleship: Living in Authentic Community
Sunday, May 16	Acts 1:1-11; Luke 24: 44-49	Discipleship: Aligned with Jesus
Sunday, May 23	Acts 2:1-21; Ezekiel 37: 1-14	Can These Bones Live?
Sunday, May 30	Isaiah 6:1-8; Romans 8:12-17, 26-30	Trinity: Unending Connection

Reflections on Discipleship

- What does it mean to YOU to be a disciple of Jesus? What difference does that make in your life?
- As disciples, we need both, times spent specifically with God and time spent in community. How are you living into each of those needs? What do you need to do differently?
- Disciples work to align their lives with the teachings of Jesus – where are you “out of alignment?” Where are you working to better align your heart, mind, and soul?

Church Musician's Corner

by Greg Rolla

One of my favorite contemporary church composers is Andrae Crouch (1942-2015). He was an American gospel singer, songwriter, arranger, record producer and pastor. Referred to as “the father of modern gospel music,” he was known for such compositions as “The Blood Will Never Lose Its Power,” “My Tribute,” and “Soon and Very Soon.”

Crouch collaborated with artists Stevie Wonder, Chaka Khan, Bob Dylan, Barbara Mandrell, Paul Simon, Elvis

Presley and Little Richard. He paved the way for early American contemporary Christian music during the 1960s and 1970s, and modern gospel during the 1980s and 1990s. Crouch’s original music arrangements were heard in the films, “The Color Purple,” for which he received an Oscar nomination, and Disney’s “The Lion King,” as well as the NBC television series “Amen.” He also received 7 Grammy Awards, induction into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame in 1998, and a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. This month will feature some of his most popular gospel songs during service.

A Picture Worth A Thousand Words

They say a picture is worth a thousand words.

If you would like to try your hand at creating a special poem for your mother for Mother’s Day, inspired by a personal photo of her or the both of you, this would make a lovely and personal greeting card for her special day. You can use the following instructions as your guide. If your mother has departed, this would make a beautiful memorial keepsake.

Instructions:

1. Take a few moments to observe everything about the photo (use the picture at left or use a personal photo of your own).
2. Write down as many words as you can to describe what you see.
3. Begin brainstorming. Write down words that describe how the photo makes you feel.

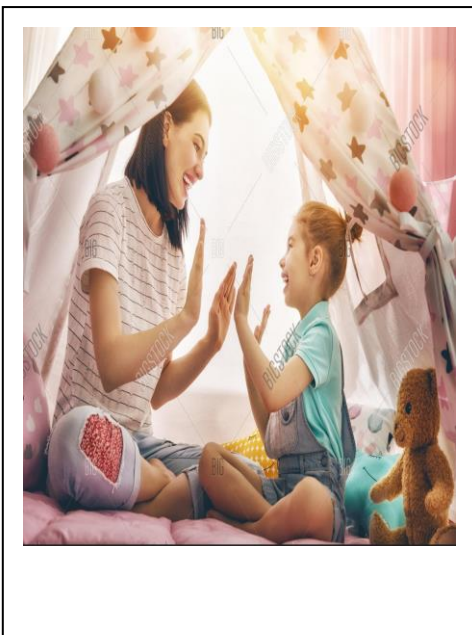

Express your inner feelings as best as you are able. What emotions come to mind? Are there any connections you can make to your own life? Does it trigger a certain memory? If so, write them down.

Ex: Words for brainstorming picture at left could be:

Mother – Child - Hands –
Clapping – Tent – Fun –
Love – Teddy Bear - Curtain

5. Once you’ve brainstormed, you’ll be able to use your words and ideas to begin writing the poem.

Who knows? You might be able to bring out your poet within!
(If anyone would like to submit their poem and picture for the newsletter, we would love to share it with our readers. The poem you create doesn’t need to rhyme, just needs to express your inner feelings.)

We cling to the promises that God is always with us;
that there is NOTHING that separates us from the love of God in Christ.

The following is a complete list of those we are remembering in prayer. If you have pictures of any individuals for whom we are praying, please bring them to the office, and the photos will be posted on the bulletin board in the Knitting Room. If you are on this prayer list and wish to be removed or you would like to be added to the list, please call the church office at 708-598-3100.

We pray for those in need of healing and those with health concerns.

We pray for groups who are in need.

Healthcare providers and others in harm's way, especially Jean, Kaitlyn, K, and Molly; those in hospitals and facilities with other health needs besides COVID-19 who cannot have loved ones with them; those in lockdown and isolation; teachers, students, and parents challenged with e-learning; those living in domestic violence situations; all who are coping with being furloughed from their jobs or who have lost their jobs; those battling addiction; fire and police departments tasked with keeping the peace; the systemic racism and social challenges in our country

We pray for those who mourn.

For the Lenz family on the death of Rev. Edie's Grandma Helen; for family and friends of Dick (The Delaneys); for families and friends of Mary Jo who recently passed away; for the Mendoza family on the death of Laurie (Tom M); for the family and friends of Willie who passed away on April 26 (AR); for families who have lost loved ones in this time and cannot mourn for them as we normally would; for victims and families affected by violence

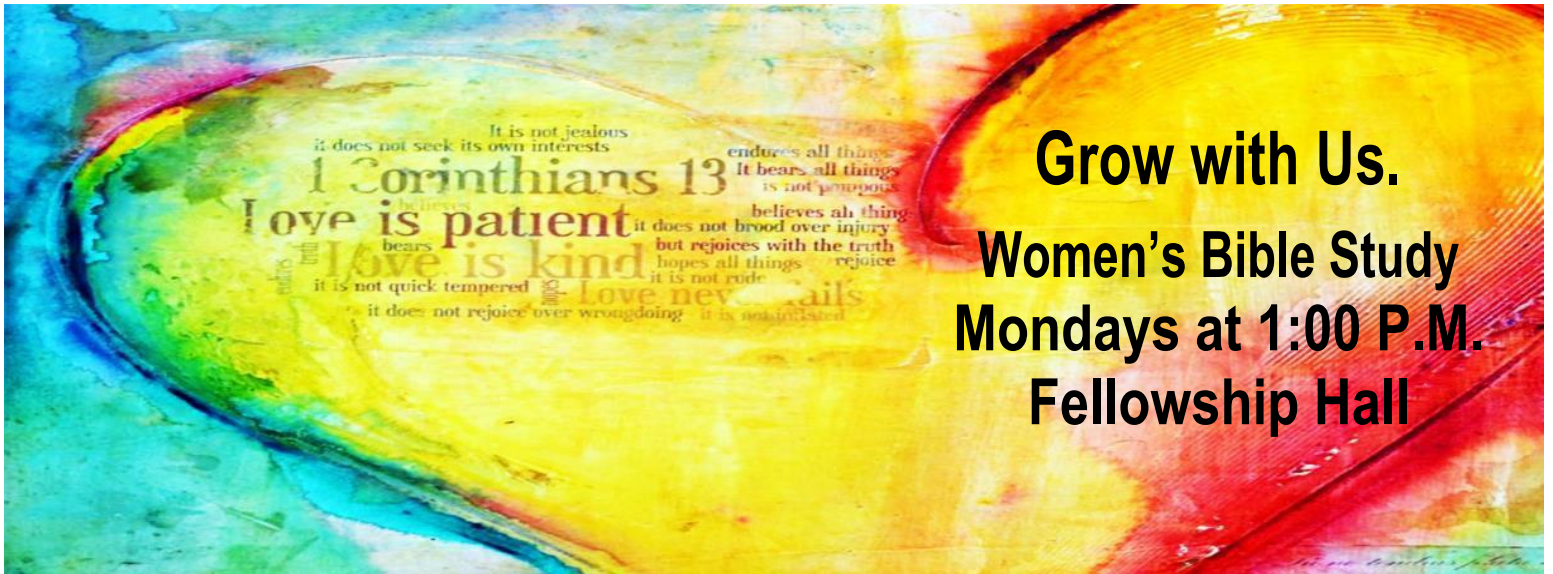

We pray for those in need during miscellaneous circumstances.

For those who are struggling mentally and emotionally at this time with the prolonged isolation; Coronavirus upsurge throughout the world; Gina (Bernie); Jenny D (Andrew); those who provide essential services we need; Ziarko family; Dimmick family; churches who are struggling to reach members and care for people; the injustice and violence around the country

We give thanks for the faithfulness of God.

For the gift of our Savior and the hopes of a new year; for neighbors and families helping one another; our Micro-pantry; for the return of work for some; for the guidance to find ways to share our hope with the world

Benediction: A blessing at the end of a religious service. Why is it started before this report? If you are wondering, let us know.

We finished Chapter 3 of The Good and The Beautiful Life, The Grand Invitation.

A sermon, given by the greatest person who ever lived, on the Beatitudes. Do you remember Pastor Edie using the above recently?

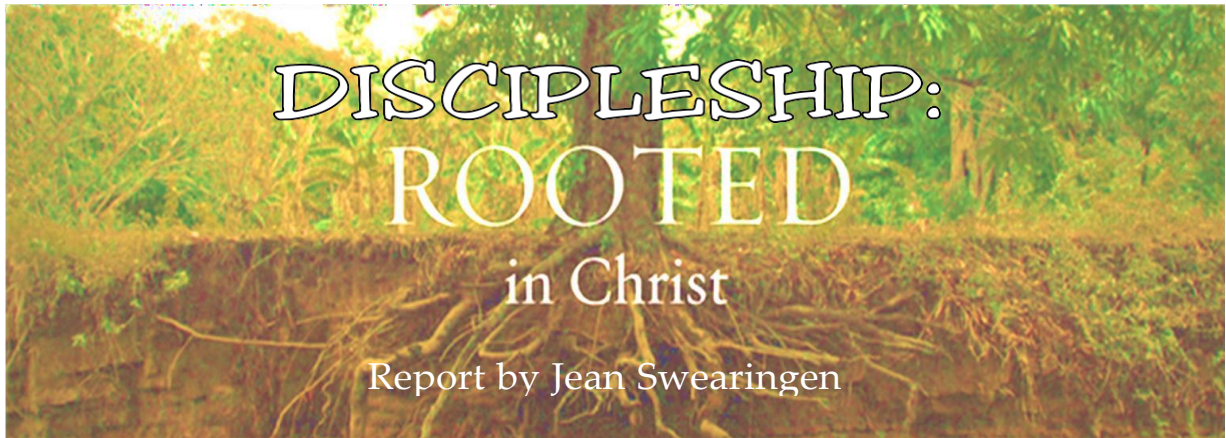

We look forward to having you join us this month as we continue to look into who can enter the kingdom of God.

The Discipleship Committee has exciting plans for Hickory Hills Presbyterian Church (HHPC). Planning is in progress for activities into the summer months!

Pop Tabs

The April 2021 newsletter shared that HHPC had delivered pop tabs to The Ronald McDonald House. Our estimate was just over 100 lbs. Although we have not received the official letter, a call to The Ronald McDonald House informed us we delivered 138 lbs.! Again, we are waiting for official documentation, but believe we have now donated 843,822 pop tabs! If these numbers prove true, we are 124 lbs. shy of our goal of 1 million pop tabs! Keep saving!

Recognition Sunday

Plans continue for Recognition Sunday which will be held on May 23, 2021. HHPC has graduates for 8th grade, high school and college. We will recognize and celebrate their accomplishments!

HHPC T-shirts

As of this writing, HHPC is working with a printer and finalizing the proof work. Information regarding HHPC T-shirts will be shared when the design is finalized and orders can be accepted.

Vacation Bible School (VBS) – June 14-17, 2021

HHPC will be celebrating VBS this year with focus on the theme, Concrete and Cranes. We have already started planning.

Sign-up sheets will be available soon. Please feel free to let us know how you can help.

Discipleship will meet on Sunday, May 9th at 11:15 a.m.

MISSION REPORT

by Kim Ambrosat

God continues to work through us in our Mission ministry here at HHPC. Thank you to all who continue to serve those in need.

The following letter of thanks to the Hickory Hills Chamber of Commerce was received from Elsie's Pantry. HHPC will continue to do our part to help keep Elsie's Pantry a vital resource for our community.

May Mission: THE UNDY 500 Underwear Collection

Our Mission focus for May is The Undie 500 to support the work of BEDSPlus. We often overlook and underestimate the value of a clean pair of underwear, but for many, this is a challenging expense. As you are out shopping, pick up a pack of new underwear for any age or size. At the end of the month, these donations will be given to BEDSPlus to benefit those they are serving.

UPDATE: PLASTIC CAPS AND POP TABS

We are 124 lbs. short of 1 million pop tabs for donation to the Ronald McDonald House in Oak Lawn.

We have collected 448 lbs. of plastic caps. We are almost to our goal of 500. Keep up the collecting!

April 7, 2021

Dear Mayors Bennett, Howley and the Chamber of Commerce,

This Thank You is very, very late, please forgive us!

We have been so blessed since the pandemic. Generosity of both food and money is at an all-time high for the pantry, the volunteers are all so dedicated and hardworking, and for the first time in 21 years we have so much support from the residents of many surrounding communities. We owe much of this success to you! Thank you all for orchestrating the food drives, helping collect the food and getting the word out about us. We are so humbled and grateful.

In June, 2019 we were contemplating closing our doors. We had just enough to get us through to January or February, 2020. Then Covid 19 hit us, and we closed...for one week. The dedication of a handful of volunteers, in a selfless act of love put their own concerns on the back burner, rolled up their sleeves, donned their masks and quickly went to work.

We are now 1 month away from our 21st year of serving those in need in our community. As long as we have the means, we will continue to feed those who come to us. Thank you for your continuing support!

Blessings,
Pastor Troy Billow, Pastor Marty Pauschke, Beth, Bob, Chuck, David, Erin, Jane, Joann, Karen, Linda, Matt, Naomi, Scott, Tom and Tommy
