A Letter from Rev. Edie

Rev. Edie Lenz
Pastor

As we enter the 11th

month of 2022, I want to invite you to reflect back on the year. Yes, I am aware it is only November, but if we are honest, we don't normally pause in the midst of the rush of the holidays to think back. If we reflect on the year at all, it is usually after January has already started, when all the parties, events, and obligations are finished and we are starting into the darker winter months. So, reflect with me a little as you prepare for all that November and December will bring.

On Epiphany Sunday, way back in January, I offered to all of you who were present a "Star Word." This word was a gift, chosen at random for you to reflect and ponder, to hold for the coming year.

Do you remember what your "Star Word" was? Maybe like me, you put it somewhere you can see it regularly, a reminder of God's word for you this year. Maybe you put it in a drawer, on a shelf, or in the recycle bin, figuring you would remember on your own. Perhaps you have no memory at all of the word you were given, or you were not present. If you can, remember back – what word were you given to contemplate? How has that word been reflected in the past year? How might you reflect on it now?

I would then invite you, whether you remember your word or not, to think back over the past year.

What are the meaningful events or moments? What are the challenges you faced? Are there themes or recurring patterns that you notice? Take some time to be still enough to remember, to allow your mind to wander, to see what, perhaps, you have been too busy or hurried to take note of. As you reflect back, notice where God has been at work. Where have you seen God's presence in the moment?

Where can you see God acting now, but you couldn't in the moment? I don't know about you, but I often find myself more aware of God's presence in hindsight than in the moment.

My own "Star Word" this year was "Experience." If you walk into my office, you will see my star posted on my computer monitor. All year I have been wondering – what does God have to say to me about experience? As I reflect back, I can begin to notice a few things.

This summer marked 20 years since my ordination into ministry. There are 20 years of ministry experiences, challenges, and blessings I have been a part of and received.

There are experiences in my life I return to again and again that were formative and painful. These experiences may be things I wish I had never experienced, but they have made me the person and pastor I am. Even difficult experiences can be made valuable by God.

A Letter from Rev. Edie (cont'd)

I sometimes discount my experiences; it is easy to compare ourselves with others, or to be hard on ourselves. It is important for me to remember that my experiences are my own; I am uniquely created for the purposes God has given me.

There is always more to experience. God is not done with me, or with any of us; there is a world of experiences ahead of me if I am open and willing to follow.

These are just a few of my own reflections on the past year, but also on my “Star Word.” I want to invite you to reflect, to wonder, to listen to God. Take some time to slow down, get present to yourself and to God and wonder. What might God have to say to you?

*Grace and Peace in Christ,
Rev. Edie*

FAITHWALKING UPDATE

Our participants have been walking together in faith, friendship and fellowship with the Lord for nearly 3 years!

Encouraged by the Faithwalking principles, participants have said they feel the transforming effect it has had in their personal lives.

Rev. Edie will be offering another class in Faithwalking in January. Contact Rev. Edie for more information or to sign up.

Please keep all of our Faithwalkers in your prayers.

Reflections . . .

Who are the saints that taught you your faith and influenced you? Where do you have influence? Who is learning faith from you?

Have you ever grown weary from doing the right thing? How did you regain your strength?

As we celebrate the holiday of Thanksgiving, what unexpected blessing are you most thankful for? How have you been blessed by God in surprising ways?

Advent is the season for preparation. How do you prepare your body, mind, soul and heart for the coming of the Christ Child?

The readings and sermons shown below are ones that Rev. Edie will focus on during Sunday worship. If you don't have Internet access, you may read and reflect on these Scripture passages in your bible. You can participate in virtual Sunday worship livestreamed on Facebook at 10:00 a.m. Sunday mornings or recorded and posted on our website at: hickoryhillspres.org

You are invited to celebrate All Saints and Consecration Sunday with us on November 6.

We will reflect back and remember those we have lost in the past year and those we lost during the disruption of COVID.

Following worship, we will gather for a simple meal of celebration for the lives of those we have lost. It is also Consecration Sunday, the day we bring our pledges and commitments for the coming year before God and offer back to the church our support. Great or small, once a week or once a year, every gift is a reminder of how richly God has blessed us. Join us as we remember and look to the future.

Food donations from our members and friends are stored inside the church.

As you can see, they are very bare now and need to be filled.

HHPC Micro-Pantry In Need of Food Donations

To continue helping neighbors in need of our community, our Micro-Pantry has to be regularly restocked.

If you are able, the following food items would be truly appreciated.

Canned fruits (all kinds), canned vegetables, pasta & pasta sauce, peanut butter (chunky & smooth), canned chicken, canned tuna, canned soup, cereal, pasta, macaroni and cheese, breakfast bars, juice boxes/bottles

Donations are then placed in our Micro-pantry outside the church for our neighbors in need to take.

Our gifts to others

From November 13 to December 25, HHPC's Tree of Warmth will be on display in the narthex for those who would like to donate hats, gloves, mittens, scarves or socks. As is our tradition, these items will then be distributed between our HHPC Micro-Pantry, homeless shelters (Beds Plus and Share the Warmth). Thank you for being a Christmas Blessing to those less fortunate.

Blessed to be a Blessing

Church Musician's Corner

by Greg Rolla

Did you know that there are 138 passages of Scripture on the subject of thanksgiving? Unfortunately, few hymns are actually written for thanking God.

Now Thank We All Our God is one hymn that we know and love. It was written by Martin Rinkart (1586 – 1649), a Lutheran pastor in Eilenberg, Saxony.

During the Thirty Years' War in Germany, refugees flooded the town. The Swedish Army encompassed the city gates, and inside the walls there was nothing but plague, famine and fear. Over 800 homes were destroyed and people began to die in great numbers. It became difficult for the town's pastors to preach, care for the sick and dying, and bury the dead.

Soon, the pastors themselves took ill and perished until Rinkart was left. By himself, he negotiated with the enemy, and did it with great courage and faith. Soon, hostilities ceased. Knowing that there is no healing without thanksgiving, Rinkart composed this hymn for the survivors of Eilenberg. It quickly became one of our most popular hymns.

This month, let us make a conscious effort to thank our God for the numerous blessings He has bestowed on us, even in the midst of suffering.

Thank You, God, for All Your Blessings!

LOL TIME!

For Thanksgiving

Each month the Connecting Link will post a seasonal recipe for our readers to try for their next gathering.

With Christmas just around the corner, if you would like to share your favorite holiday main meal, side dish appetizer or dessert recipe with our readers, e-mail it to the church office at hhpc@hickoryhillspres.org or drop it off in the office with your name and we'll select one or two and publish them in our December newsletter.

Turkey Primavera

Here's a quick and inventive way to use leftover turkey, that gives you meat, pasta and vegetables all together in one easy-to-make dish.

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 3/4 cups Swanson® Chicken Broth or Chicken Stock
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder or 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 cups broccoli florets
- 2 medium carrots, sliced (about 1 cup)
- 1/2 cup green pepper or red bell pepper, cut into 2-inch-long strips
- 1 small onion, chopped (about 1/4 cup)
- 2 cups cubed cooked turkey or chicken
- 4 cups cooked spaghetti (from about 8 ounces dry) (save time by prepping the rest of the ingredients while the spaghetti cooks)
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Step 1

Stir the cornstarch and 1/4 cup broth in a small bowl until the mixture is smooth.

Step 2

Heat the remaining broth, garlic powder, broccoli, carrots, pepper and onion in a 3-quart saucepan over medium heat to a boil. Reduce the heat to low. Cover and cook for 5 minutes or until the vegetables are tender-crisp.

Step 3

Stir in the cornstarch mixture. Cook and stir until the mixture boils and thickens. Stir in the turkey and cook until the mixture is hot. Add the cooked spaghetti and cheese and toss to coat. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Step 4

ENJOY!
